Gentlemen:

Based upon the evidence submitted, it is held that you are exempt from Federal income tax as an

You are not required to file Federal income tax returns so long as you return an exempt status, unless you have subject to the tax on unrelated business income imposed by section of the Code and are required to file Form 990-T for the purpose of reporting unrelated business taxable income.

Donors may deduct contributions to you as provided in section of the Code. Bequests, legacies, devises, transfers, or gifts to you or for your use are deductible for purposes of the estate or gift taxes. You are not liable for the social security taxes unless you file a waiver of exemption certificate as provided in the Federal Insurance Contributions Act. You are not liable for the taxes imposed under the Federal Unemployment Tax Act.

This office has considered the effect upon your exempt status of the transaction you proposed in your application. You should also report any change in your name or address. Your liability for filing the annual information return, Form 990A, is set forth above. That return, if required, must be filed after the close of your annual accounting

This is a determination letter.

Very truly yours,

A. N. Stoepler
District Director
